I am about to do a new thing. Now it springs forth! Do you not perceive it? – Isaiah 43:19

For many of us, 2022 arrived with a mixture of weariness and hope. Weariness that we must start yet another year under the cloud of the pandemic and its challenges. But also hope – that life going forward is going to be significantly better, and that we will continue to regain a sense of safety and freedom and connection to each other.

It is good to hope. For we belong to a God who relishes hope and the chance to create new life, especially when no one is looking for it. Like in the midst of Israel's slavery in Egypt. Or when Judah was scattered in exile. Or in the tomb where Jesus' body lay. Across the ages, God has continually done new things that both surprise and delight those caught in weary, desperate situations, or who feel caught in the winds of change.

Each January, we pause at Trinity to look back at God's new life work and to prayerfully imagine where God is leading us in the coming year. 2021 was another year of unexpected joys and new beginnings for TLC – perhaps more so than any year in recent history:

- It was our first full year of online and hybrid ministries as an intentional strategy to expand our community of worship, learning, care and connection beyond in-person gatherings. While we still deeply value the importance of in-person gatherings, we have seen how God's healing love can reach hundreds of new people through these technologies, and even help them put down roots in our congregation.
- Despite the pandemic, we marked our 150th Anniversary with joyous gatherings, beautiful worship, fantastic meals and two successful mission projects with Habitat and ELCA World Hunger. It was a celebration worthy of Trinity's Servant Church legacy.

- Six new staff joined our team as we both adapted and added staff roles for a changing ministry. We said goodbye to Pastor Kevin Jones as he began his new call as our Bishop. And we began interviewing for our next associate pastor. We hope to have a candidate to present for congregational approval very soon.
- With the resumption of in-person activities last January, we were finally able to utilize our newly renovated building. What fun it has been to watch our congregation and wider community using these spaces, and to see how they have grown our ability to serve, connect and gather.

What new thing will God do in 2022? Trinity's leadership is exploring how our congregation might serve as an "anchor" for those churches in our region who seek revitalization or are unable to call pastoral leadership. We will keep serving the spiritual, emotional and physical needs of our community. And in light of our rapidly changing world, we will continue to draw on our past, keep faith in the present, and trust in God's future for us.

God has done remarkable things with and through us this past year. And Trinity's mission is vibrant and growing in a really challenging time for all churches. Thank you for taking part in this mission. And thank you for your trust in our God who makes all things new – our hope and our life!

JO PEARCE
2021 PRESIDENT

As I sit down to write and reflect on the last year at Trinity Lutheran Church, I can't help but let my mind shift and think how Covid 19 has changed everything. To think it started in March of 2020 and we are now in January of 2022 and we are still wondering how long will it last. But one thing I do know is that we have and will continue to get through it together as a family.

Even with COVID19, we as a congregation are very fortunate to have many highlights to reflect upon throughout the past year. We had challenges, but the positives were plentiful. Let's start with the T150 Construction project which was completed. What a great feeling that was. Trinity's anniversary float in the North Iowa Band Festival Parade. Then on to the ELCA World Hunger Challenge Project Weekend. The 150th Anniversary Block Party was a well-attended event, which included an outdoor concert & BBQ. In September Trinity members helped with the Habit for Humanity Challenge. Also, in September our newly elected Bishop Kevin Jones was installed and a reception was held after the installation. What a wonderful celebration this was. The weekend of October 31st the 150th Anniversary Celebration Worship was held with dinner afterward. What an amazing time to celebrate. In November Trinity's Scandinavian Bazaar was back in the church for the first time in a few years. These are just a few of the highlights of

MARY CHARLSON & JO PEARCE

It truly has been an honor for me to have been on council for the past three years. And to my fellow council members, I am thankful that you responded yes and accepted to serve as leaders of this congregation. I would also like to express my gratitude to the many people who said yes to serve this past year on the various committees, cabinets, and to the countless volunteers, it really does take a village. I am grateful to our pastors and church staff for all the ways they lead and guide our church. I ask for everyone's prayers as Roger Schlitter steps into the role of President of the congregation and to continue to bless our pastors and church staff. We are blessed to have an amazing church family.

Unfortunately, we do not have a crystal ball to see what 2022 will bring but I am confident it will be a memorable one as in the years past.

I will leave with this... God has & will continue to carry us through everything and we are stronger together than by ourselves.

May God's peace be with you,

Jo Pearce

CELEBRATE!

From a BBQ Block Party to a Habitat for Humanity Build to a celebration culminating the year Trinity turned 150, there was something for everyone to commemorate Trinity's big birthday. Even throughout the pandemic, creative ways were found to carry on with the anniversary celebration.

Overall, the anniversary challenge offering benefiting ELCA World Hunger and Habitat for Humanity of North Iowa surpassed the $15,000 goal with nearly $20,000 in gifts. The celebration culminated in late October Sunday morning church services with "Trinity's Own" Bishop Kevin Jones preaching, the introduction of a newly commissioned hymn by Elaine Hagenberg, beautiful music galore adding to the festivities, and an anniversary banquet and program featuring greetings from eight former Trinity pastors.
