The Trinity Connection informs the members of Trinity Lutheran Church about the church’s mission, and people, helping them to grow in faith and commitment to Jesus Christ.

In 2018, movie star Chris Pratt (Guardians of the Galaxy, Jurassic World, Parks and Rec) received the Generation Award at the MTV Movie & TV Awards. Pratt, in his acceptance speech, spoke to the mostly younger audience (he was 38 at the time) as an elder with wisdom to impart. He was both silly and deeply profound. Clips of the speech quickly went viral.

PASTOR DAN GERRIETTS
SENIOR PASTOR

Rule number one was: “Breathe. If you don’t, you’ll suffocate.” Pratt went on to talk about prayer, the reality of God’s love, and how to give medicine to a dog. But it was his advice about community and how we treat one another that garnered the most attention: “Don’t be a [jerk]. If you’re strong, be a protector. If you’re smart, be a humble influencer. Strength and intelligence can be weapons. Don’t wield them against the weak. That makes you a bully. Be bigger than that.”

In a Gen Z kind of way, Pratt expressed what has been a core tenet of the Christians faith for centuries – that we are made for community. Our particular gifts should be used for the good of our neighbors. And we are better together than we are as individuals. God made us this way.

This month at Trinity, we are celebrating two new members to our faith community – Pastor Beverly Butler and Dani Vogel. Pastor Butler joins our staff as our new pastoral lead for care, bereavement and visitation ministries. Dani comes as our new Youth Director with particular focus on high school ministry and support of middle school and elementary programming. Both Beverly and Dani bring great gifts for building community. We are thrilled to have them.

As we welcome these new staff, we also need to recognize the gifts of our current staff and members who have bolstered our community and helped us care for one another. I am especially grateful for Becky Elsbernd, who expanded her hours last fall to help support our Care Ministries – and Pastor Daniel Hanson, who has shepherded our High School Youth as they get ready for the ELCA Youth Gathering. Scores of lay leaders have also stepped up, proving we are most certainly better together than we are as individuals.

Finally, we want to celebrate our community that is the Northeastern Iowa Synod. Ten staff and lay people attended the C3 Event in Waverly a few weeks ago. This gathering of synod church leaders reminded all of us of the power of Christian community. (You can check out their reflections on page 3.)

We are better together. God made us this way. What a gift.

NEW SUMMER SERMON SERIES

Summer Stories: Lessons You Learned as a Kid

Even if we don’t remember it, most of us recognize that we saw the world and people differently when we were young. We learned lessons that continue to shape us as adults. This eight-week preaching series looks at familiar Sunday School stories and the truths that persist – or have changed – as we’ve grown older. Begins the weekend of July 13-14, 2024.

C3 (CREATIVE COLLABORATIVE CONGREGATIONS) MINISTRY FAIR

Ten Trinity members and staff attended the NE Iowa Synod C3 Ministry Fair on June 1 in Waverly. Through workshops, fellowship and worship they connected with other leaders and sharpened their skills for ministry.

"With over 30 workshops on every aspect of ministry, 13 discussion groups, 13 information table displays, great worship, more than 150 people from many churches -- there was certainly something for everyone. My favorite activity, however, was having lunch with a full table of Trinity friends, old and new, and getting to know them all on a deeper level." - Rich Murray

From Tiger McLuen's session on leadership: "Any ministry without a vision becomes an obligation" & "It's not about me." I loved the day. Thanks for the opportunity. - Bob Mason

I found it very enriching and enjoyable. Especially faith formation and enjoying outdoor ministry. - Earl Kiefer

Well-organized with thought-provoking subjects. The church has new ideas and plans to meet the social changes that are taking place in our society. I enjoyed the privilege of talking to pastors and lay people who look to the future with a positive outlook. I hope our synod will see fit to do this again next year and would encourage others to take part. - Dennis and Anna Marie Wilson

One of the parts of the day I appreciated most was not just the learning sessions but having large group worship. The resounding praise of dedicated Christians was powerful. On my long drive home, I reflected a lot on how this day fed my soul. I am full. I appreciate the feast of fellowship, worship, and education. I came away nourished. Thank you, Trinity Council and congregation, for enabling this. It was a blessing. - Janet Christensen

DONATIONS NEEDED FOR HEALTHCARE WORKERS

One way that MercyOne North Iowa is addressing recent employment challenges is by recruiting skilled workers from the Philippines. Many come to make higher wages in the U.S. and must borrow money at high interest in order to relocate. These employees find homes and ways to get to work but need help with transportation and home items. MercyOne is asking for your support in donating:

- furniture
- home goods like towels
- pots and pans
- transportation to work and the grocery store
- bikes or cars
- toiletry products

Please make sure everything you donate is in good condition and working order. Items can be dropped off at the Mercy Foundation office. Questions? Contact Julie Kline, Human Resources office at MercyOne North Iowa.

ROTATING ART GALLERY

Jim Zach has a God-given talent as an artist. Even as a youngster, he liked to draw pictures and even created a book of dinosaur drawings, with the help of his mother. Jim has donated many hours creating a number of posters, banners and buttons to promote Mason City, and worked for North Iowa Area Community College as their Art Director for many years. Visit the Trinity Rotating Art Gallery now to view Jim Zach's work!

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL/DAY CAMP RECAP

Led by four awesome Riverside Bible Camp Counselors, Trinity presented Cultivate Life, based on John 15:5: "I am the vine, you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing". There were 16 preschoolers, 39 day campers, and 13 youth & adult helpers at Trinity June 10-13.

The Day Camp service project for the week was to bring items for the Hawkeye Harvest Food Bank. The young people this week brought 78 items the Food Bank needs the most.

Special thanks to Lisa Wulf, who led the preschool for the week, the helpers for all the age groups, and all who provided snacks and supplies. Thank you to Pastor Daniel (who spent his birthday traveling to Riverside in Story City for a day) and all the helpers who went with him! Big thanks to John & Marcy Colvin who had the counselors for dinner and thanks to the Youth & Family Committee for hosting a walking-taco supper after Thursday's closing celebration. A HUGE thank you to The Dettmers for providing housing and meals and a very good time for the counselors. Trinity is truly blessed to have such wonderful people who give of their time and talent to make this week possible!

MEET PASTOR BEVERLY BUTLER

BY MICHELLE MURRAY

Beginning July 1, Trinity will officially have a new Pastor of Spiritual Care! Pastor Beverly Butler will be working 15 hours each week at Trinity to provide bereavement support (including funerals) and working with Parish Nurse, Becky Elsbernd, with the care team.

Pastor Beverly has a unique background as she grew up in Panama City, Panama. Both parents were United Methodist missionaries, so she is very much in the family business! The youngest of three (she also has a brother and sister), she said her mom grew up on a farm here in North Iowa... the same farm Pastor Beverly now calls home! As a young girl, Pastor Beverly remembers visiting her grandma's farm and dreaming of raising sheep as her grandma did. In 2011 she began fulfilling that dream, and soon found out that she was not really "raising" her sheep—they had become her family. The sheep that remain are all 13 years old. A 19-year-old llama is also in the mix, and Rosa "very much guards the sheep!"

To listen to Pastor Beverly talk about her animals, her story about growing up and living in different places, and her desire to be in this role at Trinity, a sense of "the right person at the right time" came to my mind. She is an extremely easy person to talk to, and although I wanted to find out more about HER, at times she had such a caring way of turning the conversation around...so much so that I can honestly say she is one of the best listeners around.

For a quick glimpse at her life story, she graduated from Balboa High School, in what was then the Canal Zone, went to college in Alabama (her dad's home state), and after college helped her parents in their churches in southeastern Iowa where they had moved in 1982. She then felt God's call to ministry and attended the Candler School of Theology at Emory University in Atlanta, GA. Pastor Beverly is an ordained United Methodist pastor and has served churches in Iowa, Upstate New York, and Northeast Pennsylvania, as well as serving as a chaplain for independent living apts. and skilled nursing facility in Norwich, NY, and also for Pathfinder Village, a residential community for children and adults with Down Syndrome in Edmeston, NY.

Pastor Beverly's most current experience includes a "Preaching Only" pastor at the United Methodist churches in Plymouth, Rock Falls, Nora Springs, and Rudd, while also serving at MercyOne North Iowa Medical Center as part-time Chaplain. She will keep her Chaplain post at the hospital while also serving in her new role at Trinity.

Of course, she's not a brand new face at Trinity as she's been involved here since 2016 in Healing Touch Spiritual Ministry, and has also participated in the Monday morning activities (Centering Prayer and Lectio Divina) at Trinity for a number of years. She "loves the way Trinity is so welcoming of people coming to activities." She added, "It felt so good that the activities are available for everyone!"

One thing she loves about Trinity is that "it's a community!" Pastor Beverly looks forward to "meeting people and supporting them in their spiritual journey...their LIFE journey!" She loves to visit with people and get to know them. She stressed, "I'm not new to Trinity—I'm new to being on staff!" Welcome, Pastor Beverly! We are glad to have you here!†

DANI VOGEL

MEET DANI VOGEL

My name is Dani Vogel, and I am super excited to join the staff at Trinity Lutheran Church as the new Youth Director. I grew up in Spring Valley, MN, and graduated from Wartburg College, and am happy to return to northern Iowa. When I'm not at church, or out and about supporting students at their events, you can find me reading, cheering on the Cubs and the Vikings, or on a never ending quest for the perfect cold brew coffee. I'm excited to be part of the ministry team at Trinity, and love all things Marvel, Ted Lasso, and have recently been welcomed by the Swiftie community as a football fan. I love blending faith and pop culture into Bible studies and different activities for the church, and look forward to seeing you all soon. - Dani Dani will begin her ministry with us on July 1.

TRINITY QUILTERS VISIT GLOBAL HEALTH MINISTRIES

BY MICHELLE MURRAY

Sixteen women took a trip to Fridley, MN to visit the Global Health Ministries offices and warehouse. This is a Lutheran-owned mission that ships medical supplies, newborn kits, rolled bandages, hospice kits and financial support to those in need. On an annual basis, Global Health Ministries (GHM) provides support by filling 13 shipping containers filled with over $4 million of medical supplies and equipment, assisting 500,000 people with community-based initiatives, 1000 Community Health Workers, 1100 trained leaders, and over a million people with access to healthcare. This was a working stop for the Trinity group as all were involved in putting together “newborn kits” which consisted of a bar of Ivory soap, a washcloth, an infant crocheted cap, an undershirt, two diapers, and a receiving blanket wrapped in a bath towel. This package was then tied with cord and put into a shipping box that holds seven of these packages. The Trinity group filled 23 shipping boxes while they were there. Their adventure included a wonderful meal at Sunlight Restaurant before they were off to the LWR (Lutheran World Relief) Warehouse where they saw how all of their contributions were packaged and loaded on containers. The Trinity group works hard to donate quilts, school kits, baby care kits, sewing kits and fabric to this mission.

NATHAN ELSBERND

played as a “Rising Star” at the 2024 National American Guild of Organists Convention. He looks forward to presenting this recital at his home church, Trinity Lutheran Church in Mason City, Iowa.

Because 80% of the Global Missions donations come from individuals and congregations such as Trinity Lutheran Church, the Trinity Quilters are always appreciative of donations that assist them in their mission as there are shipping expenses, sewing machine repair costs and other expenses. Clean white sheets (cotton or cotton blend) are always in need as they are used to make bandages. Baby care kits are in need of monetary donations, dark hand towels, Ivory soap, baby socks (6-24 month size), and at least one yard of flannel fabric. The quilters have added bandage making to their Monday gatherings and invite interested people to come and help them! The group says, “It’s an easy, worthwhile project that allows us to socialize as we do it!” Last year Trinity donated 29 personal care kits, 7 blankets, 54 baby care kits, 48 school kits, and 142 quilts.

Thanks for serving in this important ministry!†

NATHAN ELSBERND ORGAN RECITAL

Wednesday, July 31, 2024 / 6:00 PM / Trinity Sanctuary

Join us for an organ recital featuring Nathan Elsbernd! Nathan Elsbernd is a church musician who advocates for community-centered music. Currently, he is the Organist and Director of Music at St. Luke’s Episcopal Church in New Haven, Connecticut. Additionally, he studies at the Yale School of Music and the Institute of Sacred Music. Last year, Nathan graduated from Luther College in Decorah, Iowa where he was the first Luther College Church Music Fellow, serving as an organist, collaborative pianist, and conductor. Nathan was named as a member of The Diapason’s “20 Under 30” Class of 2023 and

PREPARING THE ALTAR

Servant Spotlight

The Trinity Altar Guild is “a ministry of faithful people who serve with reverence, devotion, and attention to detail that may be acceptable unto the Lord. To serve in the Altar Guild is a privilege of the highest order.” This is the formal description of this important ministry. Recently, 12 of the 16 Altar Guild members were together to explain their involvement in the Altar Guild. “I always admired the women in the Altar Guild. They were wonderful women!” was one response to why a member joined. “I wanted to be a part of something with the church.” “It’s all behind the scenes and I wanted to join when I retired.” “I love it!” “What could be more important than preparing the altar for Communion?” These answers are testament to the devotion shared by the Altar Guild members.

Some of the responsibilities have changed over the years, but the main duties consist of the following: dust the altars in the sanctuary and chapel, order and pay for baptism towels, change linens, prepare Communion (including buying the grape juice and making the Communion bread), prepare Home Communion kits, and take care of the acolyte robes, washing and mending as needed. In the past, the Communion glasses were made of glass and the Altar Guild had to wash them by hand. “It’s changed throughout the years. We’re getting older. It’s gotten a little easier,” one Guild member said.

Another area that falls under the Altar Guild’s realm of responsibility is putting on the luncheon for the Kings and Queens (or band royalty) for Band Fest each year. They prepare the luncheon, make salads and cookies and come the day before to make sure everything is ready for royalty the day of Band Fest. Trinity has been hosting Band Fest royalty for over 25 years, even holding the interviews here.

Most of the members have been in the Altar Guild for ten years or more with two members (Marlene Freudenberg and Audrey Warner) having the most longevity. These two women also serve Communion at Good Shepherd once a month. Men and women are welcome to join Altar Guild. In fact, Tom Dettmer is the one male in the group currently and just might appreciate a little company.

As President of the Altar Guild for 15 years, Julie Sanchez has everything under control and loves to serve in this capacity. Her fellow Guild members praised her for the work she is doing. “Julie is a super organizer and leader. Anything you need...Julie helps!” exclaimed one member. Sanchez shared the reason Altar Guild has meant so much to her. Like many other women, she watched her own mother participate in the Altar Guild and thought she would like to follow in her footsteps someday. It so happened that her mother died when Sanchez was nine years old. The Altar Guild always celebrated around Christmas with a big meal at the Holiday Inn, where the members dressed up and invited the pastors to join them for the meal. For two or three years after her mom died, Sanchez said she and her sister were invited to this special dinner. This is just one example of how Altar Guild members took care of each other like family...and they still do.

Another Guild member shared her “why” she was a part of Altar Guild. She shared that she joined after her husband died. “They pretty much helped me through all that!” she said. And then to lighten the mood, Marilyn Strandberg, one of the newest members, said that when she and her husband moved back to Mason City and Trinity, she “flunked bells and crochet...so quilting was out. And no one would want to taste my cooking...but I can talk!”

She joined Altar Guild and found it to be a great way to serve the church. The Altar Guild is always looking for more hands. "It's easy!" one member exclaimed. "Nobody ever does it alone. Two or three people work together!" Another member chimed in, "We know WHY we do it...it's a sacred thing to do and we're doing it for the Lord." Julie Sanchez made sure to add, "We don't try to push people to join." And then Mary Galazin said, "On the other hand... there's Nancy Rockman. She called me and said, 'Altar Guild is meeting Monday night at 7:00. I'll pick you up!'" And Galazin has been a member ever since.†

VISIO DIVINA

Tuesday, July 30, 2024

10:00 AM / MacNider Museum

303 2nd St. SE, Mason City

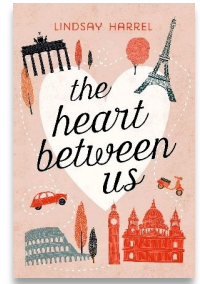

Visio Divina or "sacred seeing" is an ancient form of Christian prayer in which we allow our hearts and imaginations to enter into an image, in silence, to see what God might have to say to us. Come and encounter the Divine through visual art. This is a great opportunity to check out the new exhibit Portraits of Dementia by artist Joe Wallace.

More than 50 million people are living with dementia globally. In the United States, one in three seniors suffers with Alzheimer's disease or dementia at the time of their death. And yet despite the millions of individuals and families affected, dementia is often a taboo subject with limited public awareness or discourse. Portraits of Dementia destigmatizes those living with dementia through moving portraits and stories of lives well-lived.

BOOK DISCUSSION

THANKS FOR YOUR SUPPORT OF ELCA WORLD HUNGER!

Trinity was recently recognized as one of the most generous congregations in the ELCA to our denomination's World Hunger and Lutheran Disaster Response. ELCA World Hunger reaches millions of our vulnerable neighbors across the globe. And LDR is often one of the first to arrive and last to leave after major disasters, both in the U.S. and abroad. To learn more go to: elca.org/world-hunger Thank you for supporting this important ministry!
